

Target Audience:

Are you aware that women purchase 83% of all products and services? The Summit County Women's Journal is a primary resource for educated women of all ages and ethnicity throughout Summit, Portage, and Stark County.

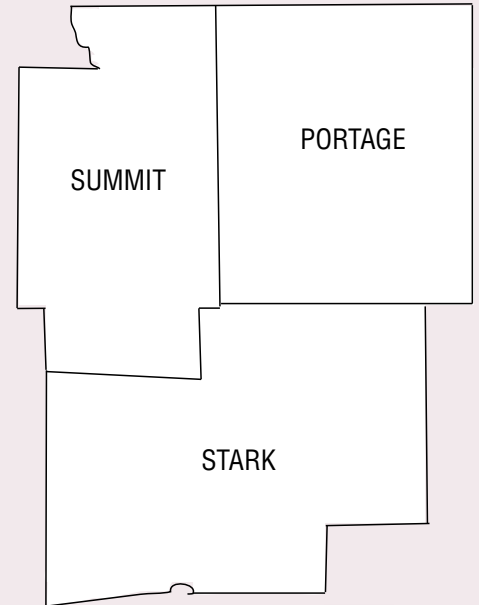

Readership:

Summit, Portage, & Stark Counties – over 100,000 and growing!!

Distribution:

More magazines are read outside of the home in public waiting and meeting areas. Readers experience fewer interruptions, engage in less multitasking and feel less guilty about devoting time to reading. The Women's Journal is delivered mainly through public placement, where this reading occurs.

Our above average readership is due to the multiple readers in public places, current information being referred to friends and family who directly benefit from our articles.
